about the artist

JESSICA BUTLER

Queensland artist and instructor, Jessica Butler, specialises predominantly in acrylic pieces.

Beginning a love for painting over 15 years ago as a way to allow her body and mind to simply catch a beat and relax.

Jessica Butler is now sharing her art and knowledge both in person and online, and loving every minute of it!

Painting is a never-ending journey where there is always a challenge, a learning experience and inspiration to record. No matter the medium, Jessica's art has always been a manifestation of personal thoughts, visions, emotions and life journey.

Painting is very therapeutic. There is an enormous love for the feeling of paint on her hands. Painting is her own form of yoga and way to relax the soul through the freedom and expression of art. In this busy thing we call life, painting pushes the 'stop' button and allows you to loose yourself in music and a mess of paint and imagination.

Jessica creates her pieces not to be seen but to be experienced and felt by the viewer. Allowing each person to make their own honest connection between her work and their own emotions.

Please, enjoy diving deep and getting lost in Blooms.

EXPLORING THE CONNECTION BETWEEN ART AND FREEDOM

"I want to paint colours good enough to swim in."

Like a flower, a painting has a life of its own. Full of expression and emotion, depth and beauty.

COLLECTION

I could look upon flowers all day and still be mesmerised. They are a true gift to us and to gaze upon them is a delicate wonder. I'm filled with excitement to capture the beauty and magic of what I see and feel.

Using a limited palette, I want to create and paint colours good enough to swim in - with petals soft enough to touch. I aim to capture their raw and natural beauty, growth and velvety features through each piece. Showing the rhythm of leaves and stems. The fluidity of petals. The freedom they have and the desire to follow the sun. And when it all comes together, I get to make the world more beautiful - and someone's wall more colorful.

REPRODUCTION PRINTS

Prints On Canvas - Limited Edition

This is the deluxe range of limited edition prints on canvas that are produced from a Giclee process, using advanced 2880dpi printing technology to apply archival Ultra Chrome pigment ink onto the finest products available.

The quality of reproduction prints are accepted at a museum level. Inks are assured for many, many years - longer than most of us require. Canvases are varnished, professionally stretched on quality stretchers, and presented ready to hang. Each print is numbered and signed, and the owner is recorded with the artist. The effect is very luscious and has most people thinking these prints are the original painting!

REPRODUCTIONS ARE LIMITED TO FIVE HUNDRED
PRINTS OF EACH IMAGE
